Obituary

John Cathcart Elms was born on 1 April 1938 to Sybil Violet Cathcart and Samuel Elms. He was a younger brother to Noel. His early childhood was spent during the war in Rockhampton, before the family relocated to Brisbane, where John began his primary education. He attended Brisbane Grammar School for his secondary education, then Kelvin Grove Teachers' College and UQ to complete his training as a Physical Education Teacher. After a brief episode of Pilot Training with the RAAF, he then re-entered the field of Education for the remainder of his working career, culminating with John achieving his Doctorate in Education.

After marrying Lyn Speight, two children, Kim and Peta were born. Kim married Jaclyn, and two grandchildren, Ethan and Leah, came into John's life.

He was a contented man who spent his final days happily contemplating his memories.
